13. (1) The Committee may, on an application by the holder of a licence or of its own motion, vary a licence by adding a prescribed description of online gaming to, or deleting a description of online gaming from, the descriptions specified in the licence.

(2) Subject to Regulation 8(2), the Committee may, on application by the holder of a licence or of its own motion, vary or cancel any condition specified in the licence.

(3) A variation of a licence, or of a condition of a licence, made otherwise than on application by the holder shall not have effect until the expiration of twenty one days from the date on which notice of it is given to the applicant or, where an appeal is made under Regulation 15, until the appeal is abandoned or determined.

(4) The Committee may, on an application by the holder of a licence, transfer a licence to a person specified in the application.

(5) A transfer under subregulation (4) shall be endorsed on the licence.

(6) Regulations 8(2) to 8(5) apply, with any necessary modifications, to a transfer of a licence as it applies to the grant of a licence.

(7) Regulation 9(1) applies, with any necessary modifications, to an application for -

(a) the variation of a licence, or of a condition of a licence; or

(b) a transfer of a licence;
as it applies to the grant of a licence.

14. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of Regulation 11 (1) of these Regulations, the Committee may, at any time, where it is satisfied that the licensee has acted in violation of the provisions of these Regulations or of any Regulations, or has been in breach of any terms and conditions of his licence, revoke the licence, but before such revocation, it shall give the licensee a reasonable opportunity to be heard and to make representations:

Revocation of licences

Provided, however, that it shall not be necessary to afford an opportunity to the licensee to make representations in any case where it is convicted in a court of law of an offence under these Regulations.

15. Any person who is aggrieved by the decision of the Committee revoking or varying his licence, or a condition of his licence, or refusing to renew his license may appeal to the Minister and the decision of the Minister thereon shall be final.

PART IV
OFFENCES AND PENALTIES

- | | |
| Obstruction | 16. Any person who willfully obstructs or hinders the Committee or any member thereof in the performance of its duties or the exercise of its authority under these Regulations commits an offence. |
| Licences not assignable | 17. (1) Except as provided in subregulation (4) of Regulation 13, no person to whom a licence has been granted under these Regulations shall transfer or assign it to any other person, or in any way alter, deface or destroy such licence before the date of expiration thereof.

(2) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with the provisions of this Regulation commits an offence. |
| Breach of conditions of licence | 18. (1) Any person who contravenes or fails to comply with the terms and conditions of a valid licence granted to him under these Regulations commits an offence, and the court, by or before which he is convicted may, in addition to any penalty it may impose, order the licence in relation to which the offence was committed to be forfeited and cancelled.

(2) An order of forfeiture and cancellation of a licence made under subregulation (1) of this section shall be deemed for the purpose of any appeal to be part of the sentence for the offence; and the licence shall not be forfeited or cancelled under that order-

(a) until the date of expiration of the period within which notice of appeal against the conviction or sentence may be given;
or |

(b) if notice of appeal against the conviction or sentence is duly given within the period aforesaid, until the date of the determination or abandonment of the appeal.

(3) Where a licence is forfeited and cancelled in pursuance of an order made by the Court under this Regulation, the Clerk of the Court by which the order was made, or the Registrar of the Supreme Court, as the case may be, shall send a copy of the order to the Minister for his information.

19. (1) A person convicted of an offence under these Regulations is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty five thousand dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, or to both such fine and term of imprisonment;

General
Penalty

(2) Where an offence under these Regulations committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to have been attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate or a person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he as well as the body corporate is guilty of that offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(3) Where a corporation is charged with an offence under these Regulations, such corporation may appear and plead to the charge by its representative, by entering a plea in writing; and, if either the corporation does not appear by its representative, or though it does so appear, fails to enter any plea, the court shall cause a plea of not guilty to be recorded and the trial shall proceed accordingly.

(4) In this Regulation, the expression "representative" in relation to a corporation means a person duly appointed by the corporation to represent it for the purpose of doing any act or thing which the representative of a corporation is by this Regulation authorised to do, but a person so appointed shall not, by virtue only of being so appointed, be qualified to act on behalf of the corporation before any court for any other purpose.

(5) A representative for the purposes of this Regulation need not be appointed under the seal of the corporation, and a statement in writing purporting to be signed by a managing director of the corporation, or by any person (by whatever name called) having, or being one of the persons having the management of the affairs of the corporation, to the effect that the person named in the statement has been appointed as the representative of the corporation for the purposes of this Regulation shall be admissible without further proof as prima facie evidence that that person has been so appointed.

EnforcementV

20. (1) If any magistrate or Justice of the Peace is satisfied on information on oath that there is reasonable ground for suspecting that an offence under these Regulations is being, has been or is about to be committed on any premises, he may issue a warrant in writing authorising any police officer to enter those premises, if necessary by force, at any time within fourteen days from the time of the issue of the warrant and search them; and any police officer who enters the premises under the authority of the warrant may seize and remove any document, money or valuable thing, instrument or other thing whatsoever found on the said premises which he has reasonable cause to believe may be required as evidence for the purposes of proceedings in respect of any such offence.

(2) The court by or before which any person is convicted of any offence as aforesaid may order anything produced to the court and shown to the satisfaction of the court to relate to the offence to be forfeited and dealt with in such manner as the court may order.

PART V
GENERAL

21. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Gambling Prevention Act or any other rule of law, no objection to any contract, bill of exchange, cheque, promissory note or other transaction of any kind entered into in the course of licensed online gaming under these Regulations shall be taken or allowed in any court of law on the ground that such contract, bill of exchange, cheque, promissory note or other transaction is under any law in force in Belize directly or indirectly 'tainted with illegality or is against public policy.

Validity of contracts, etc. CAP. 109

(2) Any person to whom any winnings, wagers, prize money or money's worth of any kind becomes due and payable from any licensee licensed under these Regulations may recover the same from the person liable to pay and shall be entitled to bring any proceedings necessary to recover any such winnings, wagers, prize money or money's worth.

22. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of provisions Regulation 4 above, any person who, at the date of the entry into force of these Regulations, is lawfully conducting any online gaming in or from within Belize shall, subject to subregulation (2) below, be deemed to have been licensed under these Regulations.
